NOTES	This routine inspection is the result of a foodborne illness complaint received at our office on October 30, 2017. The complainant ate at this restaurant the evening of October 26, 2017 and developed symptoms late morning on October 27. He went to the hospital the evening of October 27 and was diagnosed as either viral or foodborne illness. During this inspection, staff were observed washing their hands when required. The internal Food Safety Checklist for October 26, 2017 was inspected and all temperatures and other items on the checklist appeared to be in compliance for the 4:00 pm check. The timesheet record was reviewed for employees who went home early due to illness. No employees were noted at leaving early for any reason on October 26.
